SUBJECT: "WILL YOU PRAY?"
SCRIPTURE: 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NIV)

14 if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

INTRODUCTION: What a privilege we have to fellowship with God in prayer. Our prayer life is essential in our walk with the Lord. Just as sure as you take a breath, which is as vital as life itself, your prayer life is just that important. There are those who believe that prayer is only good in certain situations in their life. In other words, they tend to put limits on what God can do.

Some of us treat prayer like it's a spare tire, only praying in case of an emergency. Church, I know for myself that prayer works in all situations of our life, because of the God that you and I serve. Prayer is a life line to God— our way of connecting with God in all of life's circumstances. God is still in the mountain-moving business. He can do the impossible if we believe and have faith in Him.

The Bible tells us that we should always pray without ceasing. Although we don't know what tomorrow holds; we can be sure of Who holds tomorrow; and that is God Almighty. God is in control. WILL YOU PRAY?
